

2018 - 2019 Year in Review

Atlantic Spinners and Handweavers

Executive

President	Kristina Vermeulen
Vice President	Fran Nowakowski
Secretary	Michelle Carey
Treasurer	Wendy Landry
Web	Fran Nowakowski
Programs	—

Programs

September	Taproot Farms - Patricia Bishop
October	Spinning Art Yarns - Reagan du Plessis
November	Storage Options - Kristina Vermeulen
December	Ornament Exchange / Buy and Sell
January	none
February	Keeping track - Fran Nowakowski
March	none
April	Peruvian Textiles - Fran Nowakowski & Wendy Murray
May	none

Hands-on

September	Inkle Bands - Fran Nowakowski
October	Tablet Weaving - Wendy Landry
November	Silk Hankie Pankie! - Heather Thorne
December	none
January	Understanding Drafting - Daphne Trenaman
February	Lace Weaves on a rigid Heddle - Daphne Trenaman
March	Warping tips and tricks - Daphne Trenaman, Fran Nowakowski & Elaine MacRae
April	Bead Weaving 2 - Wendy Landry
May	Taproot Fibre Labs Tour

Other Activities

August 2018 - Exhibit of Members Work

31 members submitted pieces to this exhibit which took place in the Chase Room of the Nova Scotia Archives. There were 12 categories and 1st, 2nd and 3rd ribbons for each category. The Mary E. Black Award for Weaving was awarded to Elaine Preston for her tapestry, Joan Thorne Award for Spinning went to Cathy Greig for her Wool skein and the People's Choice Award went to Michelle Carey for her Snake Neckpiece.

April - June - Fibre day at Scott Manor House and via Zoom

Demonstrations

July - Seaport Farmer's Market

July - NSDCC Summer Market

August - Halifax County Exhibition

September - History of Industry in Nova Scotia exhibit

October - Keshen Goodman Library

November - NSDCC Christmas Market

